

Opening Statements

LAW, JURISPRUDENCE, AND THE LEGACY OF DUTCH NEW YORK

edited by Albert M. Rosenblatt and Julia C. Rosenblatt

DECEMBER 11 BOOK PARTY

Celebrating Opening Statements: Law, Jurisprudence, and the Legacy of Dutch New York.

In Opening Statements, a broad spectrum of eminent scholars examine the legal heritage that New Netherland bequeathed to New York in the seventeenth century. Even after the transfer of the colony to England placed New York under English Common Law rather than Dutch Roman Law, the Dutch system of jurisprudence continued to influence evolving American concepts of governance, liberty, women's rights, and religious freedom in ways that still resonate in today's legal culture.

Wednesday
December 11
6-8 pm

de Halve Maen Editor and Holland Society Trustee
Emeritus Dr. David William Voorhees, as well as other contributors, will be on hand to discuss their research and sign copies of the book.

We will have wine and cheese, and other delightful treats, also books for sale, including Opening Statements as well as a selection of slightly used books from the Library collection, lively conversation and door prizes!

Please RSVP to hsnylibrary@gmail.com or by calling
212-758-1675.

HOLLAND SOCIETY OF
NEW YORK

20 West 44th St. 5th floor
NYC

www.hollandsociety.org